Visiting Rotarians:

- President Bob McFadden announced that Rochester Rotarian Bill Holey was transferring to the Geneva Club and Bill visited.
- Vice President Mike Rusinko welcomed Canandaigua Rotarian Rhoda Childs from the Ontario County United Way.

Guests:

- Suzanne Parker from Five Star Bank visited for lunch and had her membership orientation after lunch.
- Judge Gail Donofrio visited.
- Merry Henry welcomed her sister Betsy Tuxill.

Announcements:

- Bob welcomed back snowbirds Bob Stenzel and Mickey Peters, and encouraged Rotarians to sign up and Give Past-President Gus Pohlig a ride to lunch.
- Mickey called his Florida breakfast with Rotarian Chris Vitale a highlight of the season.
- Past-President Lisa Ventura-Stanton announced an open house on April 17 from 4-6 at Finger Lakes Health's Dermatology. Lisa also welcomed Rotarians to Glenora on April 26 as the Radiologists from Finger Lakes Health serve as pasta chefs at the annual fundraiser.

Happy Dollars and Fines:

- Ken Steadman passed on greetings from a former Rotary Exchange Student. She's on the way to study at Nazareth College.
- Gus had some cash as a token of appreciation for being picked up. His quote; "You don't know how it feels to be a 95-year-old and be picked up regularly!" brought down the house.
- Mickey had happy dollars for visiting grandpeople, watching them at a track meet, and for likely letting them win at cards.

- President-Elect Jim DeVaney made an encouraging plug for Rotarians to come and support the upcoming Service-Above-Self dinner. (We will likely lose some fundraising revenue on the year if the Wine Train is cancelled. -- But we could more than make it up if the Club turned out for the dinner, our largest fundraising event of the year.

50/50:

Bill Buell split the $40.00 pot with Polio Plus with winning ticket number 237184. That's 3 out of 4 for Bill!

Program:

Past-President Charlie Bartishevich introduced (Lyons) high school friend and documentary film producer/director Matt Reynolds, who screened a small portion of "The Great Chicken Wing Hunt". Also, Kelly Bradley talked about the film's upcoming screening at the Smith Saturday and the wing fundraiser/reception taking place earlier in the afternoon.

We Missed:

Teresa Angelo, Virginia Araujo-Torruella, Arlene Francis, Ann Johnson, Ira Smith, Ronald Telarico, and Kim Wager. Get well soon, Ron!
